

I firmly believe this is the best of the submitted petitions for changing the Amateur Radio licensing structure. Most of the world countries have eliminated morse code and this petition is a step in the right direction. We need to have younger people in ham radio and this will encourage them to obtain licenses.
Thanks W0RPS